morning prayer

PREPARATION

O Lord, open our lips
and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.
In your resurrection, O Christ,
let heaven and earth rejoice. Alleluia.

prayer of thanksgiving

Blessed are you, Lord our God, redeemer and king of all; *
to you be glory and praise forever!
From the waters of chaos you drew forth the world, *
and in your great love, fashioned us in your image.
Now, through the deep waters of death *
you have brought your people to new birth *
By raising your Son to life in triumph *
may we, the first-fruits of your new creation,
rejoice in this new day you have made;
May Christ our light ever dawn in our hearts *
as we offer you our sacrifice of thanks and praise,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit:
Blessed be God forever!

opening prayer

The night has passed, and the day lies open before us;
let us pray with one heart and mind.

Silence is kept.

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day,

set our hearts on fire with love for you;
now and for ever.

confession

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Blessed be the God and Father *
of our Lord Jesus Christ
By his great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope *
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
Into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled and unfading, *
kept in heaven for you,
Who are being protected by the power of God through faith, *
for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
You were ransomed from the futile ways of your ancestors *
not with perishable things like silver or gold
But with the precious blood of Christ *
like that of a lamb without spot or stain.
Through him you have confidence in God,
who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, *
so that your faith and hope are set on God. 1 Peter 1.3-5,18,19,2

INSTRUCTIONS for USE:

daily office prayers

in group or family settings:

The booklet has been designed for individual and group use. Individually, you may want to substitute a singular personal pronoun where there are plural, for instance use “I” rather than “we.” In a group, the bold and unbolded text may be read alternating between a leader and a group or two groups. Prayers are intended to be read in unison. Psalms and Canticles may be read in unison or alternating verses between two groups or a group and a leader. The asterisk indicates where a pause (a selah) may take place.

Midday Prayer may be shortened to serve as a brief time of prayer before the noonday meal.

The order for Evening Prayer (to be read at sunset/early evening, especially in group settings) is available online or in a mobile application at: churchofengland.org/prayer-worship/join-us-in-daily-prayer.aspx

This booklet as well as a service for Evening Prayer is available for download or viewing on your mobile device at allsouls.com/DailyPrayer

scripture readings:

The Collect of the Week will be found in the prayers insert in your weekly Sunday bulletin. The daily lectionary readings can be found at <http://almanac.oremus.org/lectionary/> where you can download them into list or calendar format. For personal prayer, you may prefer to simplify your daily reading by choosing only one track of continuous reading or choose an extended meditation on the upcoming Sunday lectionary readings which are also found in the weekly insert. For community prayer offices, the lectionary in its complete form should be read: the reading of the Gospel, Psalm, and either Old Testament or Epistle.
